TICKET NOTICES

NOTICE OF INCORPORATED TERMS

Air transportation on EGYPTAIR is subject to EGYPTAIR's conditions of carriage. They include terms governing, for example: limits on our liability for personal injury or death of passengers, and for loss, damage or delay of baggage; claim restrictions, including time periods within which you must file a claim or bring an action against us; our right to change terms of the contract; check-in requirements and other rules establishing when we may refuse carriage; and our rights and limits of our liability for delay or failure to perform service; including schedule changes, substitution of alternative air carriers or aircraft, and rerouting. These terms are incorporated by reference into our contract with you. You may obtain more information and the full text of our conditions of carriage at www.egyptair.com, or by requesting a copy from EGYPTAIR.

NOTICE OF LIABILITY LIMITATIONS

Passengers on journey involving an ultimate destination or a stop in a country other than the country of departure are advised that international treaties known as the Montreal Convention, or its predecessor, the Warsaw Convention, including its amendments (The Warsaw Convention system), may apply to the entire journey, including any portion thereof within a country. For such passengers, the applicable treaty including special contracts of carriage embodied in any applicable tariffs, governs and will limit the liability of the carrier. For domestic flights where point of arrival and departure lies within the territory of Egypt, carrier's liability shall be subject to the applicable Egyptian law of commerce Article 292. Check with your carrier for more information.

DENIED BOARDING

Flights may be overbooked in order to avoid international no-show passengers holding confirmed tickets, in this case EGYPTAIR will solicit volunteers who are willing to give up their seats for adequate compensations within rules established in these cases. Check with EGYPTAIR for the complete rules on payment of denied boarding compensation (DBC) and for information on the carrier's boarding priorities.

BAGGAGE

Excess valuation may be declared on certain types of articles. Carriers may apply special rules for fragile, valuable, or perishable articles. (Check with EGYPTAIR.)

Checked Baggage: Carriers may permit a free checked baggage allowance, which is set by the carrier and may differ by class, and / or route. Carriers may apply extra charges for checked baggage in excess of their permitted allowance. (Check with EGYPTAIR.)

Cabin Baggage: Carriers may permit a free cabin baggage allowance, which is set by the carrier and may differ by class, route, and/or aircraft type. It is recommended that cabin baggage be kept to a minimum. (Check with EGYPTAIR). If more than one carrier is providing the transportation for your journey, each carrier may apply different rules on baggage (both checked and cabin). You must not include in checked baggage money, jewelry, precious metals, computers, mobile phones, personal electronic devices, negotiable papers, securities or other valuables include painting, antiques, artifacts, irreplaceable book publications, business documents, passports and other identification documents or samples. We shall not be responsible for any loss or damage and there are no any compensation payments for such items.

CHECK-IN TIMES

The time shown on the itinerary/receipt is the departure time of the aircraft. Flight departure time is not the same as the time you must check-in or the time you must be available for boarding. EGYPTAIR may refuse your carriage if you are late. Check-in times, as advised by EGYPTAIR, are the latest times at which passengers can be accepted for travel; boarding times, as advised by EGYPTAIR, are the latest times at which passengers must present themselves for boarding.

DANGEROUS GOODS (HAZARDOUS MATERIALS)

For safety reasons, dangerous goods must not be packed in checked or cabin (unchecked) baggage except as specifically permitted. Dangerous goods include but are not limited to: compressed gases, corrosives, explosives, flammable liquids and solids, radioactive materials, oxidizing materials, poisons, infectious substances, and briefcases with installed alarm devices.

For security reasons, other restrictions may apply. Check with EGYPTAIR.
